

This is a generic order of a wedding service. The couple and pastor will develop a service specifically for their wedding.

Processional

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Introduction and Welcome

Brothers and sisters in Christ, we are gathered here as the people of God to witness the marriage of ____ and _____. We come to share in their joy and to ask God to bless them.

Marriage is a gift of God, sealed by a sacred covenant. God gives human love. Through that love, a husband and wife come to know each other with mutual care and companionship. God gives joy to humanity. Through the joy God gives to a marriage, the couple may share their new life with others as a gift to the world. With our love and our prayers, we are here to support ____ and _____ as they now in joy give themselves to each other.

Prayer

O God, we gather to celebrate your gift of love and its presence among us. We rejoice that two people have chosen to commit themselves to a life of loving faithfulness to one another. We praise you for the ways you have touched our lives with a variety of loving relationships. We give thanks that we have experienced your love through the life-giving love of Jesus Christ and through the care and affection of other people.

We also, confess to you that we have failed at times to be loving, that we often have taken for granted other people in our lives. We have stretched and strained the fabric that you have woven together that unites us with others. Forgive us, O God, Renew within us a loving spirit. Enrich our lives with the gracious gift of your love. May our celebration of love and commitment give to us a new joy and hope in our relationships. Through Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.
